Cell Phone Policy: We reserve the right to temporarily confiscate any electronic device should it become a problem. It will be safely and securely kept at the registration table.

I agree

Discipline Policy: Any student who misbehaves will be given two warnings. Any time a warning is given, a parent will be contacted. Writing assignments or community service may be assigned. If a third warning is necessary, he will be taken aside by a staff member to discuss the issue. If further misbehavior occurs, he will be expelled with no refund. We reserve the right to adapt this policy as needed.

I agree

Rules and Expectations:

- Students are expected to dress modestly.
- Students are expected to keep electronic devices off and out of sight during devotion, instruction, and group singing.
- Students are expected to be respectful to staff members and fellow students.
- Students are expected to obey staff members.
- Students are expected to apply themselves diligently and pursue excellence. We learn music so that we can use it to praise our Lord, so for His glory we want to do our very best! (Colossians 3:23)

Your registration will not be officially complete and your spot will not be reserved until we receive your $50 registration fee. Please mail a check to 143 N. Fileys Rd, Dillsburg, PA 17019. Please make checks payable to the "PGMSS." The remainder of your tuition is not due until check-in on the first day of singing school.

I understand and agree

You will need to take a required theory test to help us assess your theory knowledge.

I would like to be emailed a link to an online theory test.

I will fill out the printable test found on the website and mail it in with this form.
